School of the University of Pennsylvania

Dear Member of the Class of 2025:

Welcome to the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania! We are excited to have you join our community and are looking forward to helping you shape your academic and co-curricular college experience.

On June 15, you will be assigned to a cohort and an academic advisor, who will lead online group-advising sessions to assist you with fall semester course registration and planning.

In the meantime, please review the information and steps below to get you started at Wharton.

Set up your PennKey and Wharton account.

If you haven't already done so, you should set up your PennKey. This ID and password will enable you to access many systems and services at Penn, including the required summer Canvas course. You can then use your PennKey to create your Wharton account, which will give you access to your Wharton email. Both accounts are crucial to navigating university resources and making connections at Wharton and Penn. Visit the first-year technology page to learn more.

Get started on the Wharton Summer Advising Course in Canvas.

To help you acclimate to Wharton, prepare for course registration, and learn more about the community that awaits you, we have put together a set of brief modules in Canvas, our online course tool. The first modules are available now (you must create your PennKey and Wharton account to access them).

Familiarize yourself with Undergrad Inside.

Visit Undergrad Inside for in-depth information to help you prepare for Advance Registration, which will begin on June 21. The Canvas modules will help walk you through this information starting June 15.

Add events and deadlines to your personal calendar.

Keep track of deadlines and opportunities on the Undergrad Inside first-year events calendar. Make sure to check Penn's University-wide New Student Orientation \(NSO\) page throughout the summer for updated events and dates.

Review the Penn10 checklist.

Please refer to the Penn10 checklist to review ten key actions you should take over the summer.

Monitor Penn's Messaging in Response to COVID-19.

The University regularly posts important messages to the community. The health, safety and well-being of the Wharton community continues to be the School's top priority, so please check for updates regularly.
